GOVERNANCE

Arthur Pascal CM, z"l
Founding president

The Board of Directors holds the vital responsibility of navigating the course for the JCF, offering its expertise, guidance, and support. As fiduciaries, members diligently guide the JCF towards a sustainable future through strong governance and financial management policies that adhere to the highest ethical and legal standards. They are vital to the advancement of our mission and vision by ensuring that all activities and transactions align closely with our core objectives.

GRANTEES

Our dedicated fundholders continue to direct their philanthropic resources toward the causes that deeply resonate with them, in both the Jewish community and the broader society. This fiscal year, the JCF distributed an impressive sum of over $189 million. These funds reached 1,170 organizations and charitable programs, effectively supporting initiatives that address crucial needs, drive positive change, and create a lasting impact. We are immensely grateful to our generous fundholders whose philanthropy continues to make a significant difference in enriching lives and strengthening communities.
