

Objective

To establish a dynamic media hub that centralizes, curates, and amplifies the voices, perspectives, and realities of Armenian communities worldwide—fostering visibility, unity, and informed engagement.

Platform Components

• Multimedia Interface

A rich, accessible platform integrating video, audio, and text, offering:

- Diaspora News by Country (inspired by Armenopole): spotlighting local developments, achievements, and concerns
 - Editorial Contributions from community thought leaders, scholars, activists, and creatives
 - News from Armenia, covering political, cultural, and socio-economic developments
 - Curated International News relevant to the Armenian identity, experience, and geopolitical context

Student Engagement Opportunities

A platform by and for the community, with active participation from students worldwide:

- Shape the structure and editorial framework of the platform
- Help create guidelines for sourcing, verifying, and curating content
- Build partnerships with local and international Armenian media outlets
- Gain experience in journalism, digital media, communication, and cultural representation

We have gathered information on over 300 Armenian media outlets across the globe, covering print, digital, radio, and video platforms. We are already in active contact with many of them, establishing relationships to foster collaboration, content exchange, and joint initiatives.

This growing network will serve as the backbone of the platform's reach and credibility, ensuring broad representation and authentic, community-driven coverage from every corner of the Armenian diaspora.

Vision

To become the central media reference point for the Armenian Diaspora, amplifying community voices, fostering cohesion, and increasing global impact through storytelling, reporting, and shared dialogue.
